Dan, long story...I applied...and I was informed last week that I have been awarded (one of six people) a Stanton Fellowship over the next two years which allows me to pursue an issue that could improve the quality of life in on the streets of our city. I will have $100,000 to pursue this – a portion of this (almost half) goes to pay my salary while I leave to pursue this work. Its like a sabbatical while you keep this job. I can share more when I see you; I am still rather shocked.

In any event, they are having an awards ceremony on Dec 10 and I have to give them my guest list by the end of the day. I would like to invite you and Mitch – do you have an email for him that will get to him; that's the one I want to use.

Kerry
